Significant Expenses since last issue:

We have changed treasurers. Bill Kalmes has those duties now. If he sends me information for the Newsletter, I'll get it in there.

The Happy Hour is scheduled next Nov 27, Wednesday. It will be held at the Legion at 4:30. (Stay alert for changes.) (October's gathering was 5, but quality is what counts)

David Nelsen has suggested we have no program the week before Christmas. He would like to have spouses & guests party for a TRIVIA game that he has done before. We thought it would be fun. Watch for more information.

Julie Brock spoke to us about Cradle2Career another nonprofit in Rochester. It is primarily supported by the United Way and Rochester Area Foundation. It is about making sure children and their families get the resources they need when they need them, so they can succeed. It is a community owned, community-driven initiative. They serve the work of our community partners through data, facilitation, and creating a common language and collective vision. They want a healthy community for all. And, that starts with excellence for everyone.

Julie spoke well for her group. If you want to pursue this, Contact2Career www.C2Cmn.com

Wife texts husband on a cold winter morning:
"Windows frozen, won't open."

Husband texts back: "Gently pour some lukewarm water over it and then gently tap edges with hammer."

Wife texts back 10 minutes later: "Computer really messed up now."

Ben Persons from Mayo High School is receiving Student of the Month certificate from Al Lun. Ben was there with his parents, Rosemary and Kenneth. Ben was nominated by the World Language Dept.

He be a bright student, but you would never know it from the information sheet he filled out. Everyone was kidding him that it looked like he was taking a course in "Dr." penmanship. I am able to make out that he is studying a lot of Spanish and has done some of that in Spain. Ben is a confident and well spoken young man. If he applies for a scholarship, I hope he prints, types or something legible.

Joseph Uhlmann from Lourdes filled out the form in perfect typing. He also was at the lunch with his parents Melissa and Gregory. He was nominated by the Religion Dept at Lourdes. He was nominated because he is a student with great work ethic and curiosity to explore beyond the obvious. He is constantly a willing participant in class and adds much to each discussion and topic covered. He is an exemplary student and is a great role model for his peers.

He has been active in Debate, Mock Trial, Dungeons and Dragons Club and Boy Scouts.

After high school Joe plans to go to college to become a nurse. He is planning to go to an in-state university so he can be close to home. Right now, his plans are to work as a nurse in Rochester after college.

Joe is a member of Nation Honor Society, Eagle Scout, and Student Ambassador.

Wife: I have a bag full of used clothing I'd like to donate.

Husband: Why not just throw it in the trash? That's much easier.

Wife: But there are poor starving people who can really use all these clothes.

Husband: Honey, anyone who fits into your clothing is not starving.

Husband is recovering from a head injury now
